

BETH HOROWITZ

ARLINGTON ADVISORY BOARD

"I've known Lisa for several years and was very happy when she launched Arlington Partners. At last, Lisa is working with a talented team to execute her vision for how searches should be done -- understanding the client, their needs, their culture, and only then embarking on finding the right talent, looking at fit, culture, and skills very strategically. I've already seen Lisa execute a successful search for one of the non-profit boards I've served on, and the client has been delighted with the results."

Beth Horowitz, MBA, is an Advisory Board member with Arlington Partners International. She is the former President & Chief Executive Officer of Amex Canada and Amex Bank of Canada. At Amex, Beth encouraged innovation and supported a superior customer experience while incorporating ethics and brand integrity into decision-making, resulting in dramatically improved margins and market share for the company.

Beth provides Arlington Partners with core business, management and leadership experience, as well as, extensive expertise on non-profit and corporate boards. She serves on the boards of HSBC Bank Canada, Carrot Insights, a privately held technology company, as well as on the boards of Women's Venture Capital Fund, Art Gallery of Ontario, Catalyst Canada, Harvard Business School Club of Toronto and Unity Charity. In addition, Beth previously served on the board of Amex Bank of Canada, Aimia Inc., and Harvard Business School Alumni Board. Beth has experience serving as a Board Chair and has led and contributed to a wide range of Board Committees including Governance and Nominating, Audit, Finance and Risk, Conduct Review, Conflict of Interest and Advancement communities. She is also a member of the International Women's Forum, and the President's Council of Cornell Women. Beth is an ambassador for Arlington and provides thought leadership and industry insights to Arlington's financial services, arts and entertainment and Board and Diversity practice areas.

Prior to joining Amex Bank of Canada, Beth served with American Express in London and New York for over 18 years in leadership roles including Senior Vice President International Product Strategy and Development, Head of Strategy and Business Development – Global Network Services, and Vice President Card Reengineering.

A respected global executive who inspires trust, Beth brings extensive strategy, marketing, and customer relationship management experience, Beth has achieved recognition as one of the 100 Most Powerful Women in Canada in the Corporate Board category.

Beth received a B.A. in Medieval and Renaissance European History from Cornell University, and an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School. She also has achieved her ICD.D Corporate Director's Certification.