

BRIGID PELINO

ARLINGTON ADVISORY BOARD

“Lisa takes a long-term view to partnership. Not only did she collaborate with us to meet a pressing leadership need, she helped our iconic company see future possibilities for our executive team and for our business. Lisa was able to assess the existing talent on our legal team, think about succession planning, and together we built out and developed the talent pipeline to fill any gaps or possibilities for growth. Arlington understands that leadership drives culture and knows the importance of finding leaders who can design the culture of businesses of tomorrow.”
