

SUSAN DONIZ
ARLINGTON ADVISORY BOARD
CHICAGO

Susan Doniz is the CIO for Boeing. She has had a long career leading technology, digital and product across various global firms. She has been a board director of Not for Profit, private and publicly traded companies from Retailers, Payments, Hospitals, Health Care, Universities and Tech startups. She has advised Fortune 500 companies as well as private equity and accelerators. She has worked at high tech companies (SAP) and Prior to joining Qantas, Susan held a variety of leadership roles with Aimia, Procter & Gamble, including Shared Services Beauty & Grooming, a $19B business covering Supply Chain, R&D and Sales and led a cross functional program for the CEO to Digitize P&G from R&D concept through to the retail shelf.

Susan graduated Dean's list University of Toronto, Engineering and has lived & worked in both developed (Australia, Canada, US and Europe) and emerging markets. She was recognized as one of the most powerful women in Canada as a trailblazer as well as WXN diversity champion