

TAYLOR STOCKWELL

CONSULTANT, RESEARCHER AND PROJECT COORDINATOR

“Arlington has built a unique space where business is led with integrity first, defined by kindness, transparency, and honesty.”

Taylor Stockwell began as a Summer Intern and has been promoted to the role of Consultant, Researcher and Project Coordinator for Arlington Partners International. Taylor provides research, organization, administrative, and project management support to Arlington’s Corporate and senior leadership teams.

Taylor’s professional experiences include facilitating a leadership program at Future Possibilities For Kids, focusing on growing children’s self-confidence, empathy, kindness, and motivation for community service, and volunteering to co-facilitate ASOntario’s Peer Connections online social group. Taylor enjoys working with children and pursuing creative outlets, such as music and writing.

Taylor is currently working towards earning her Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in Philosophy, from Queen’s University.
